Key stages involved

The key stages of your matter are based on the presumption that you have entered a guilty plea and have a date for your hearing. They typically include:

- Meet with you to provide instructions on what happened;
- Consider initial disclosure, and any other evidence and provide advice;
- Arranging to take any witness statements. This would be charged on an hourly rates basis at the charging rates set out in the table below;
- Explain the court procedure to you so you know what to expect on the day of your hearing, and the sentencing options available to the Court;
- Conduct any further preparatory work, obtain further instructions from you, if necessary, and answer any follow up queries you have;

- Attend court on the day, meet with you before going before the court. We anticipate being at court for half a day.
- Discuss the outcome with you. If advice is required on appeal, this will carry an additional cost.

Not Guilty Pleas and Trial and other hearings

- Full Day Trial at the Magistrates Court £1,000 plus vat (this includes all the preparatory work attendances upon and witnesses and attendance at Court).
- Half Day Trial at the Magistrates Court £500 plus vat (this includes all the preparatory work attendances upon and witnesses and attendance at Court).

Special reasons or exceptional Hardship hearing £400 plus vat (this includes all the preparatory work attendances upon and witnesses and attendance at Court).

Please note we cannot provide a timescale for when your hearing will take place, as this depends on the court listing for that day.

Notes

1. A summary only offence is an offence which can only be tried in the magistrates' court. There are exceptions. Under the Criminal Justice Act 1988 (CJA 1988) offences specified in the Act can be tried on indictment by a jury if they are linked to an offence triable only in the Crown Court. The principal summary only offences are:
 - driving whilst disqualified
 - careless and inconsiderate driving
 - failing to give information as to the identity of the driver
 - failing to stop or report, and
 - speeding.
2. Special Reasons pertain exclusively to situations where the accused has been found or has pled guilty and now faces disqualification unless he/she can persuade the Court that the circumstances of the offence are such that it would be unjust to impose a ban.
